

ALLELU '73 - '74

E. VanderWeel

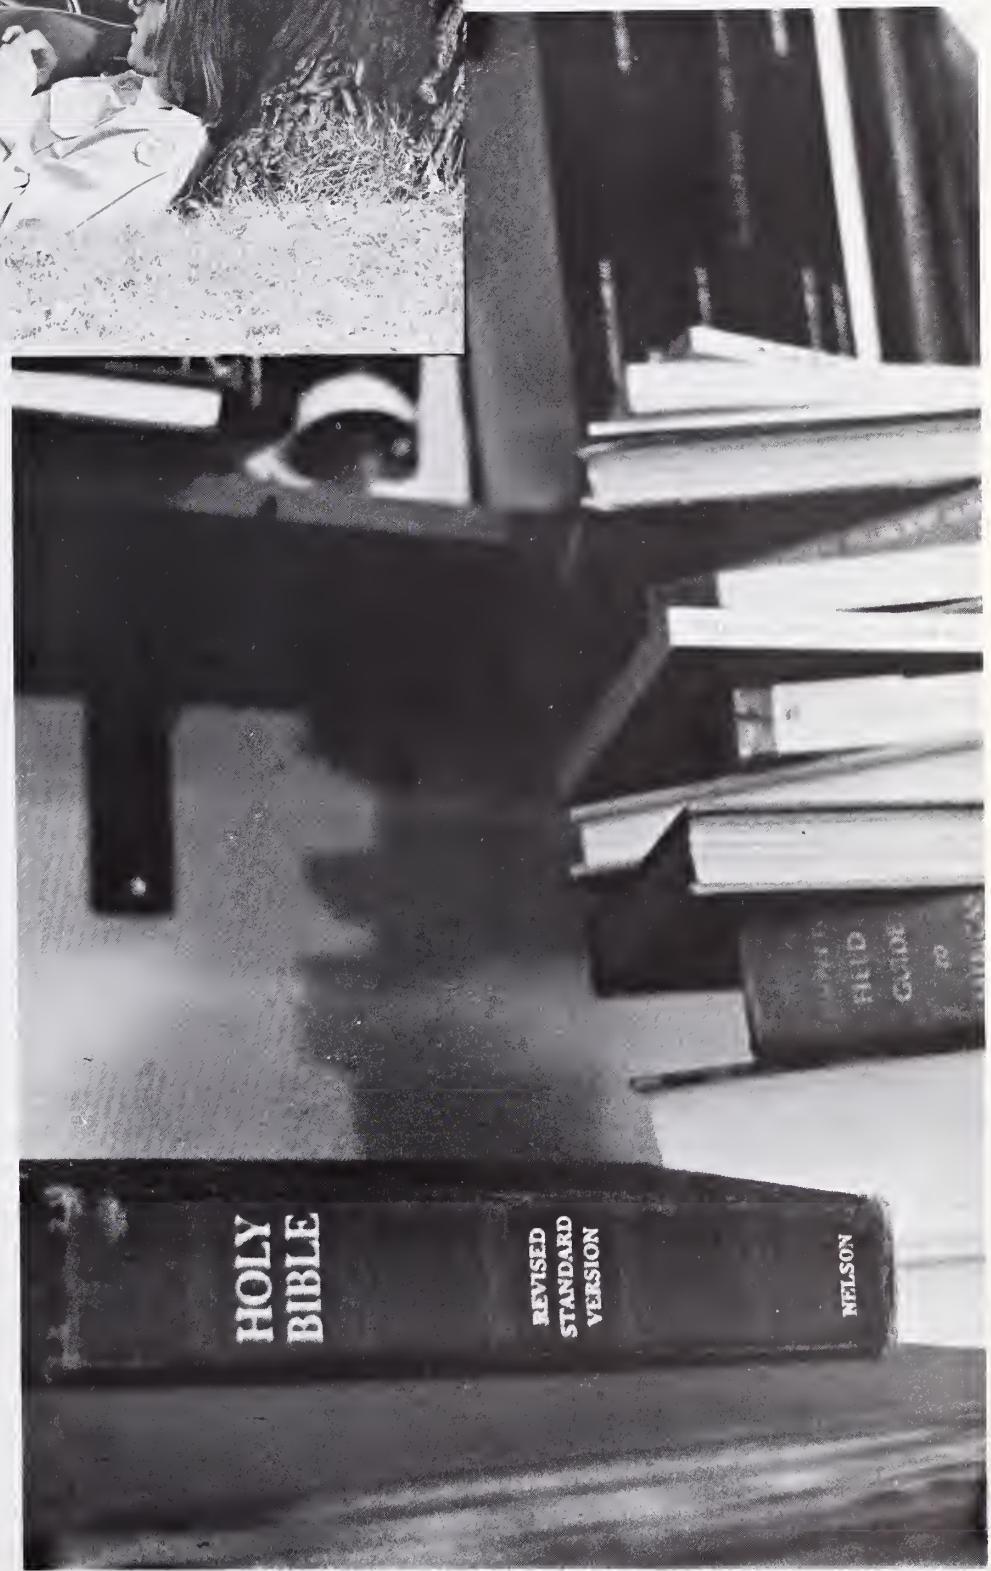

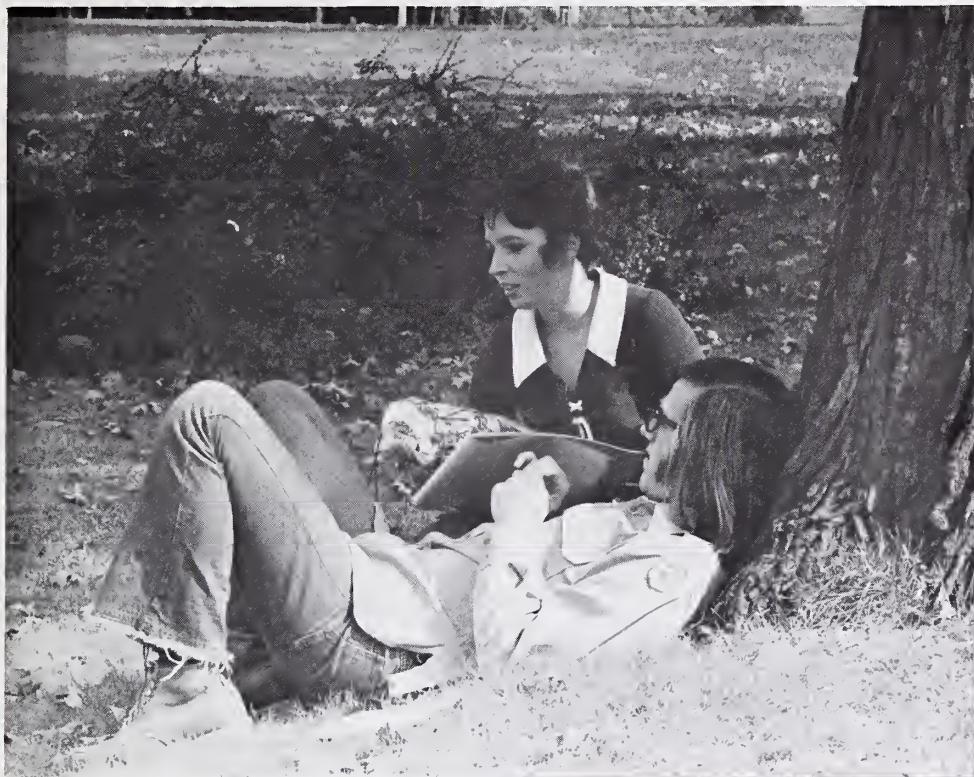

ALLELUIA 73 - 74

If you can, imagine yourself somewhere in space looking towards earth through a telescope. An infinitesimal part of God's creation comes into focus - blues, greens, browns, swirling and churning. Somewhere amongst this chaos lies a small college.

And now, if you can imagine yourself on earth, as a student of this small college. One day you buy a camera. For an entire school year you take pictures. After they're developed you sit down and look them over. Do they show you the college's direction? Can you sense its purpose? No.

Pictures can only remind you of your experiences and impressions.

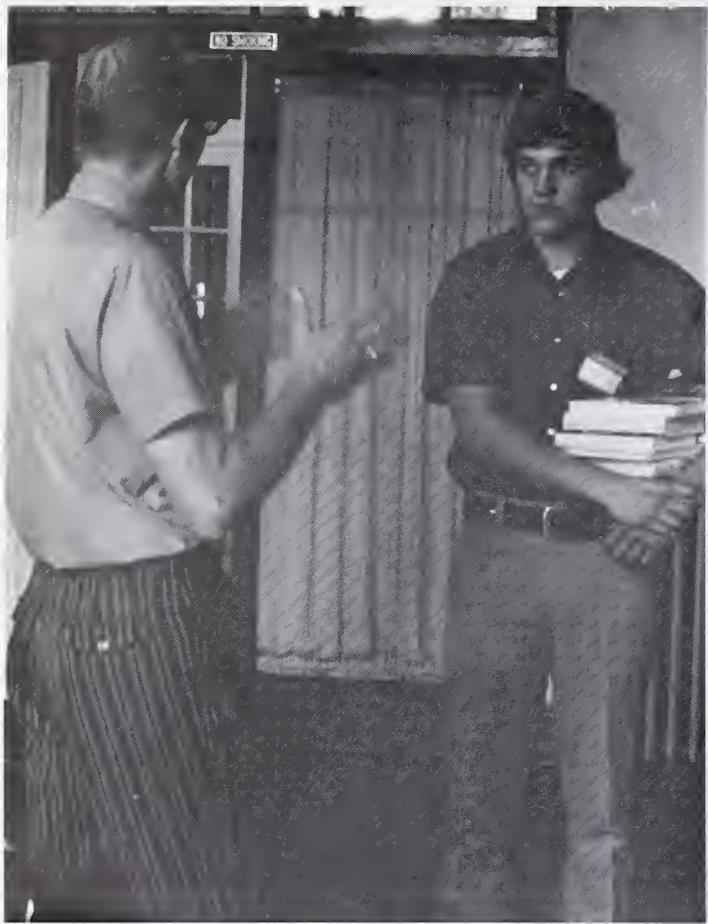

*"I think it was a necessary improvement . . .
it was dangerous to drive your car through there last year!"*

"Reformation Day is a gathering of Christians to receive encouragement for their tasks of continual renewing and reforming."

"The Inaugeration made the community aware of the responsibilities the President has and his significance in the direction of the college."

*"To Thee, Lord,
we give our thanks
for the talents and training and gifts
which he brings to this task."*

—from The Inaugeral Prayer

"The food is unique. Sometimes it's good and sometimes it's bad.

"The fans really gave us a lot of support. They came to the away games . . . and that really helps. Having cheerleaders was O.K., but the main thing is the atmosphere of the fans."

"I think we should have a talent show every year. The amount of real talent we have here is surprising."

*"Glory Forever to the Lord!
May the Lord find joy in what he creates at whose glance the earth trembles at whose touch the mountains smoke!"*

*"I mean to sing to Jehovah all my life
I mean to play for my God as long as I live."*

— from the Litany for Graduation

"For God's sake, run with joy."
